The Things We Like Best

8

“Here are the things we like best,” the children say. “We like our friends!”

“Here are many of the things that we like,” they say. “Come and look!”

Tommy says that he likes blue best.
Then Meg says that she likes red best.

“Together we like blue and red best,”
says Tommy.
“Yes,” says Meg.
“We can thank Jesus for red and blue.”

Tommy then says that the song he likes best is "The Time to Be Happy." But Meg likes all of the songs! They are all fun for her.

Tommy and Meg like to have a little time when they can talk and play. "Our time together is fun," Meg says.

The children like being with their friends. "We like to go out in our big car together," says Tommy.

The children
love to pray too.
Meg prays and Tommy prays.
They all do.

Tommy likes to play songs when he is out in their car. His brothers and sisters do too.

Meg likes her little doll so much. She thanks Jesus for her doll. It is so much fun.

The things we like best are so,
so much fun!
Now then, are there things
you like to do?

“Can we say Mommy and Daddy are the best too?
I love them!”
says Tommy.

“Me too,” says
Meg. “And I love my little family, my mommy and me!”

“Our toys and balls and cars are good,” says Tommy. “But our family is the thing we like best!”

“Jesus is my best Friend,” says Meg.
“Good! He is our best Friend,” says Tommy.
