At the Park

9

“Let’s go out in our car,” says Daddy. “We can all go to the little park to play and have a good time.”

“Yes, let’s go!”
says Tommy. “But can Meg and her
mommy come too,
with my brothers
and sisters and
me?”

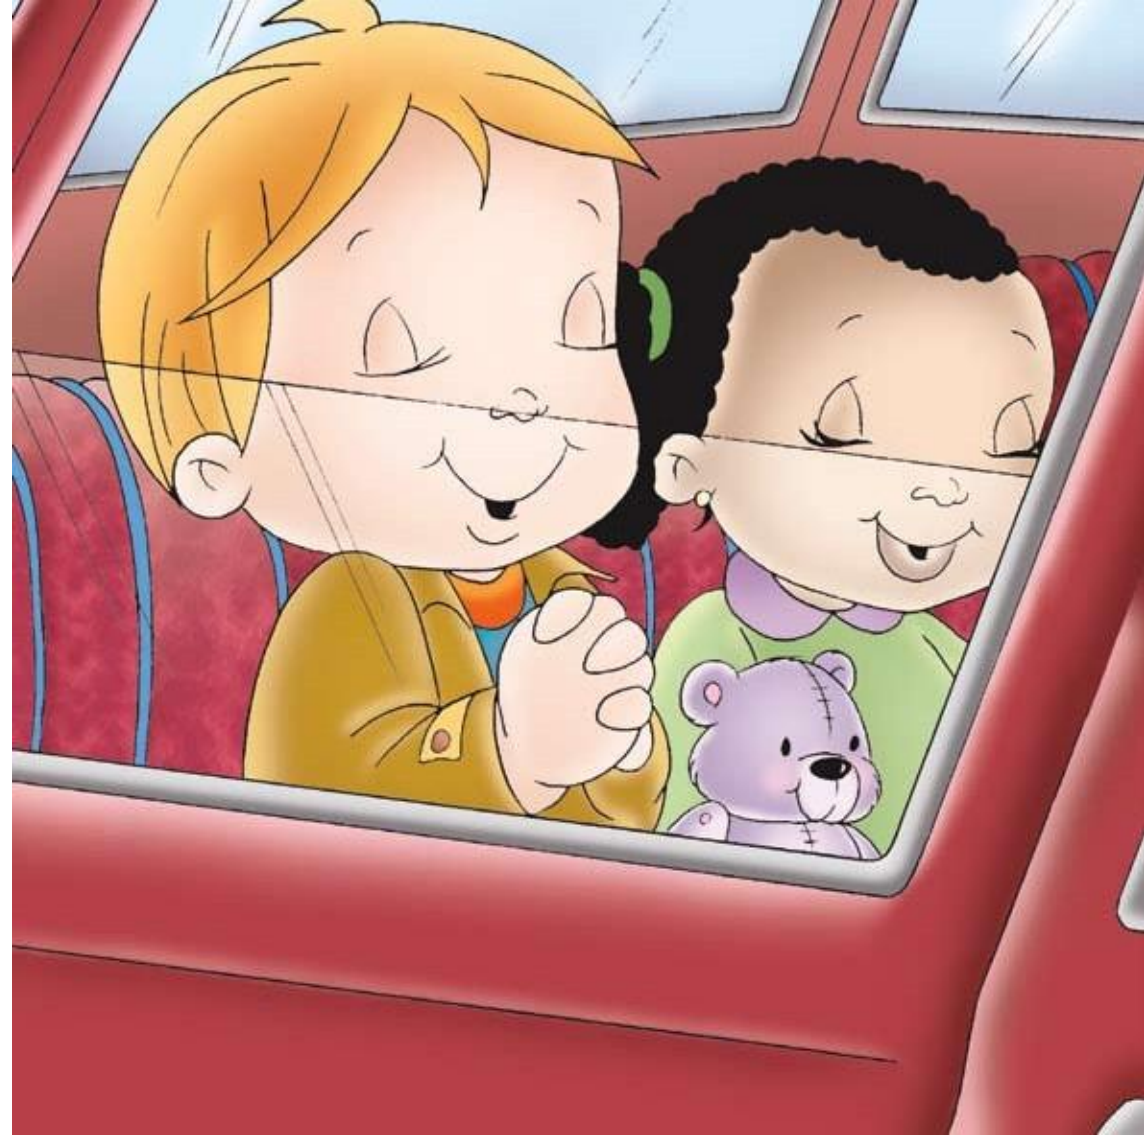

“Yes, they can come,” says Daddy. “Let’s all go out together for fun.”

Tommy prays for their time at the little park. Then they all thank Jesus for a time of fun together.

When they go in the car they talk about many things. "Come and look! A dog! I can see a big dog," says Tommy.

“Me too!” says
Meg. “Now I see
that dog!”
“Look! He can run so fast! That big dog is so
fast!” they say.

“But I am fast too, like that dog! See?” says Tommy. “See me run! Let’s run together.”

Good! Tommy and Meg can run fast at the park. They can talk when they run too.

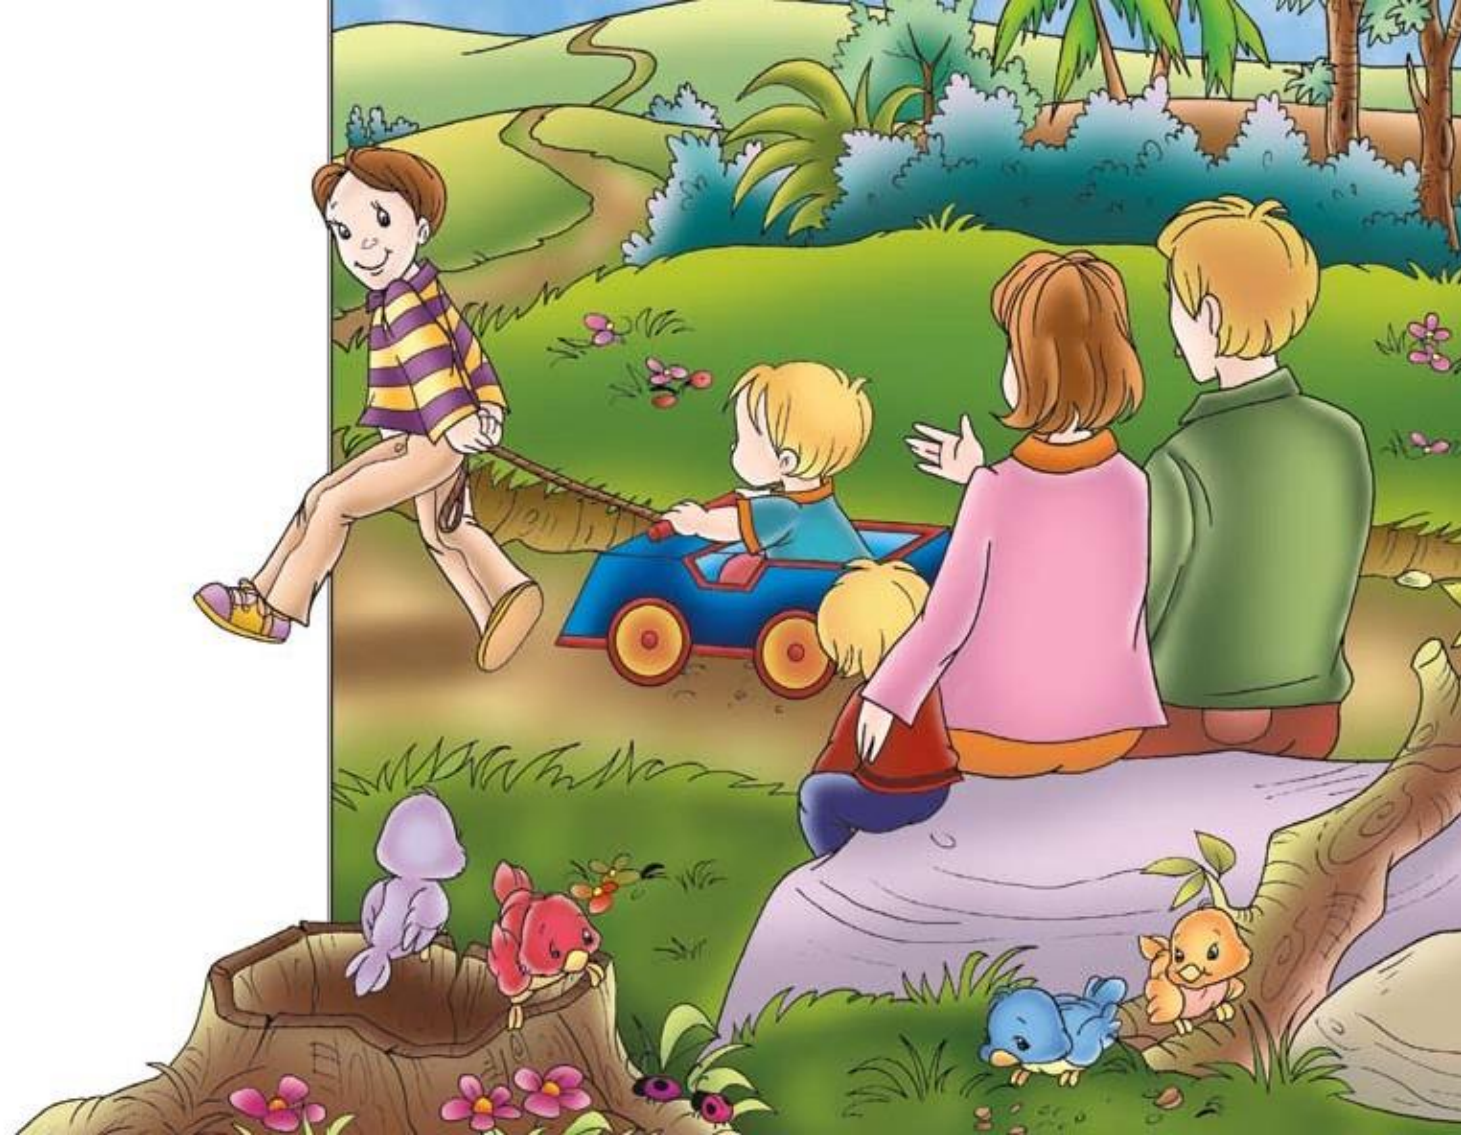

“Look! My little toy car can go fast,” says Tommy. “Do you see it? Do you see my blue toy car go, Mommy?”

“Yes,” she says.
“I do. That was good! Do you see, Daddy? His little blue car
can go so fast!”

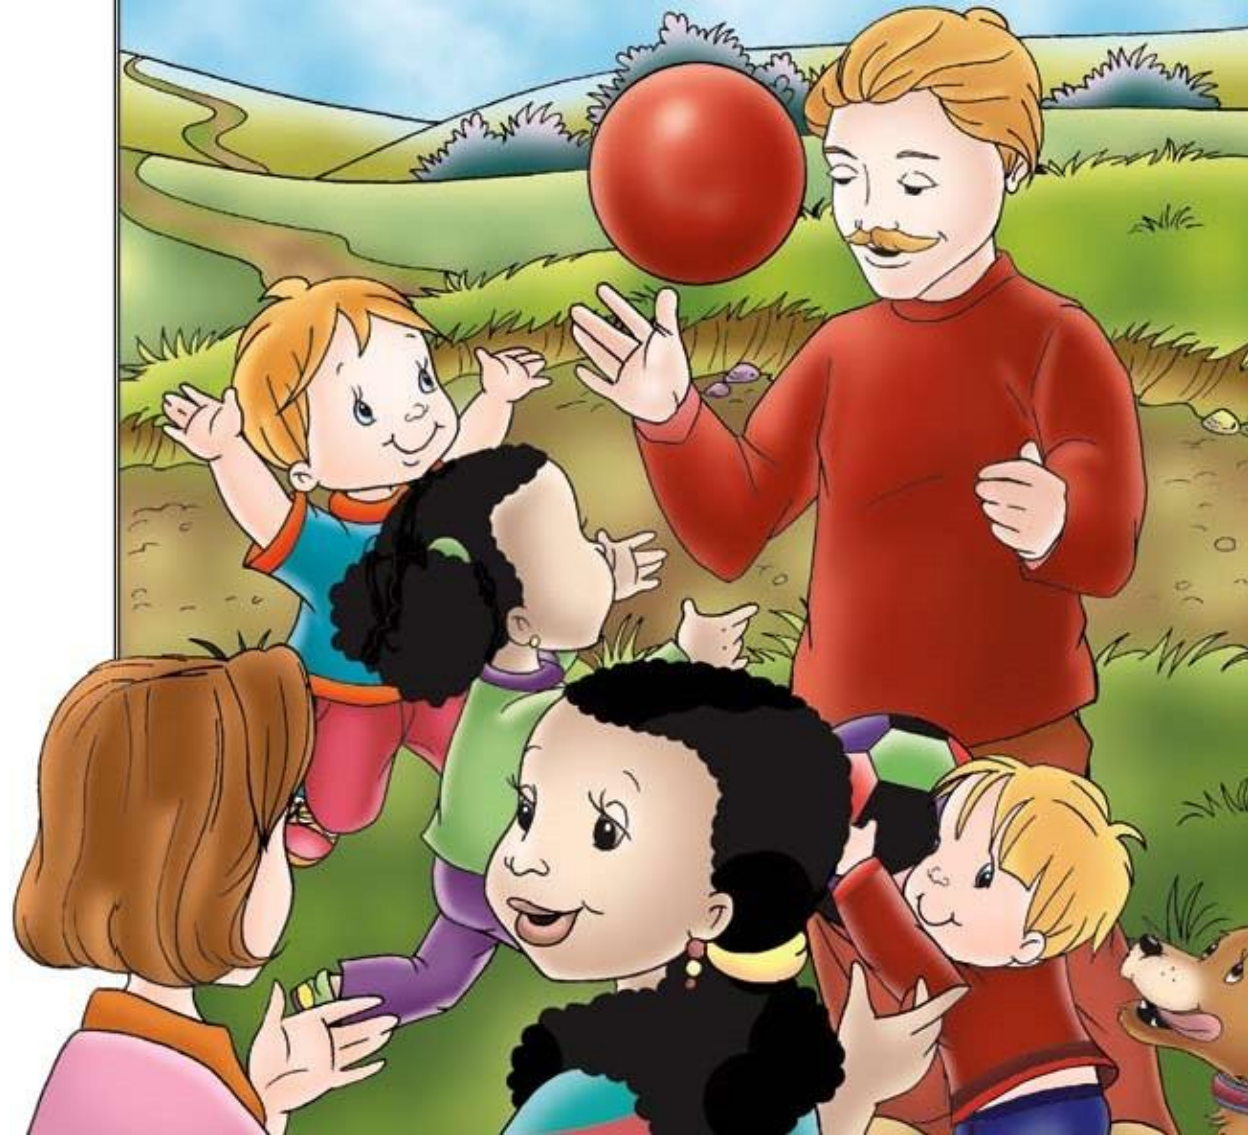

“Our big car can go fast, too, when we are in it,” says Tommy. “But I like my little car so much. It is the best toy I have.”

Now all the children run with Daddy. They play with their red ball. Tommy's mommy talks with Meg's mommy.

All the friends are
in their car now.
When they go,
Tommy plays all
the songs their family likes best.

“That time at the park was fun,” says Meg. “I like to play with many things together with my friends.”

“I was happy to be out with you and my family,” says Tommy. “I am happy now.” He loves to play with his friend Meg.
