Happy Days

12

Meg and Tommy like to have happy days together. On this day they can play and laugh and have so much fun together. It makes them happy. It is a good day!

“I like to learn many things,” says Tommy. “But I like to go out and play too.”

“Yes,” says Meg. “I like to play with my toys and with you.”

"I like to read God's Word, the Bible," says Tommy.

"Me too," says Meg. "And I like to play and make up funny things."

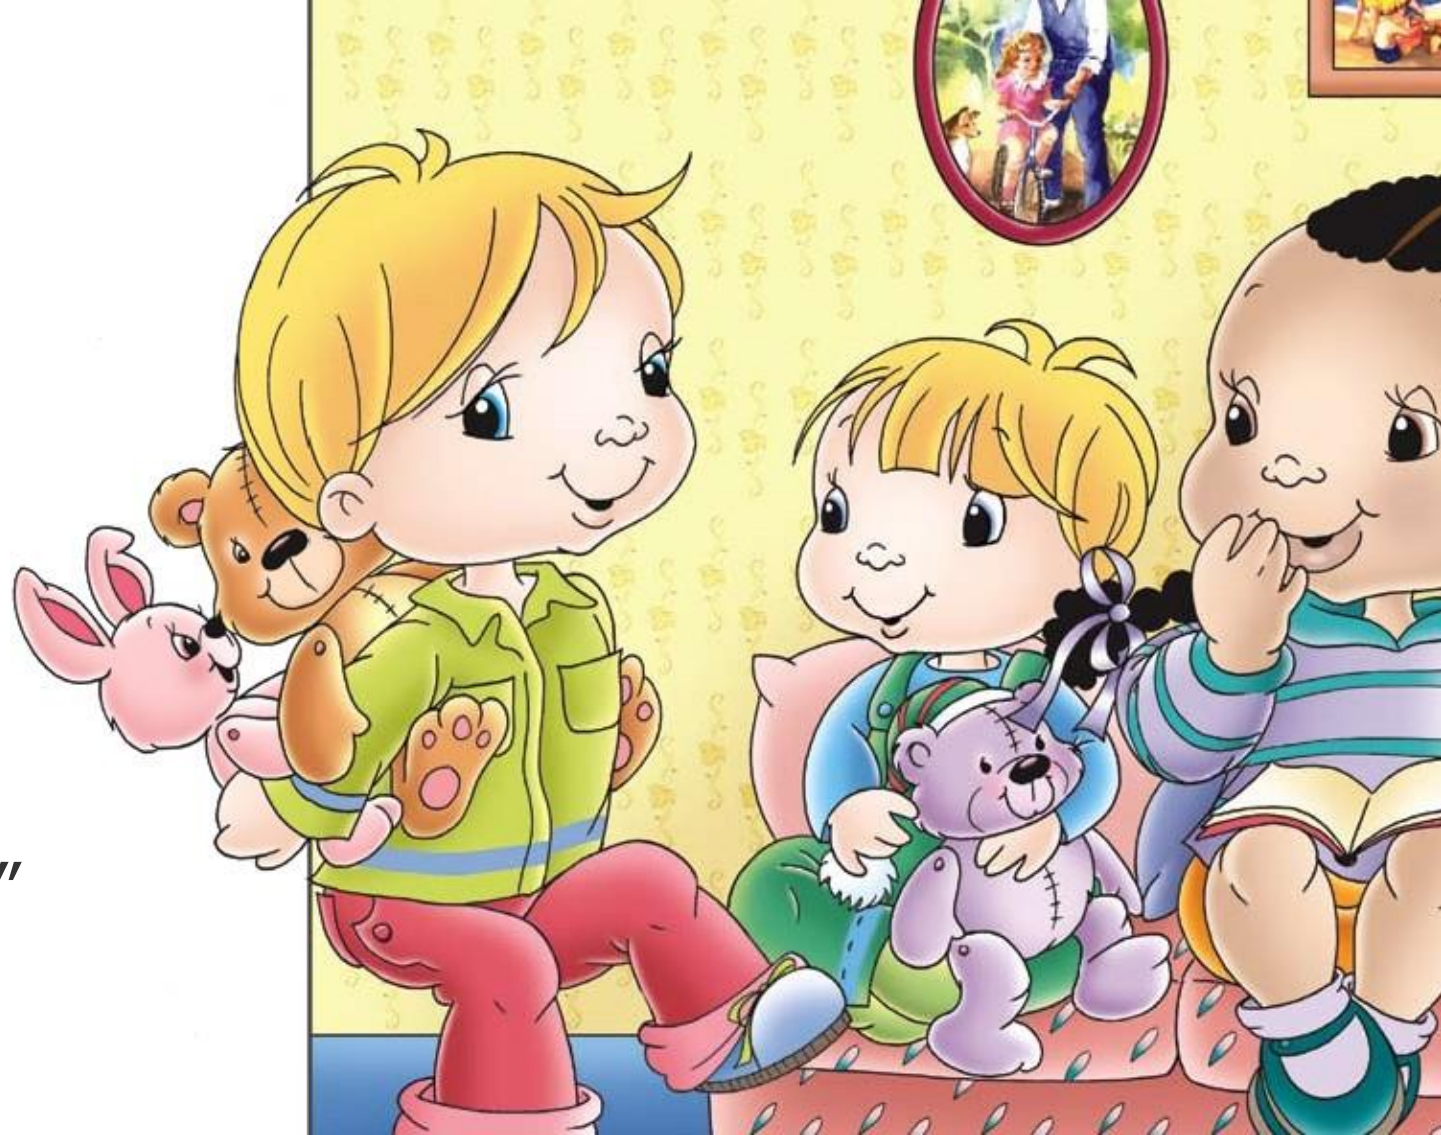

“But it is not time to go out and play now,” says Tommy.

“No,” says Meg. “Now we will read together. We can read the Bible. There are many things for us to do here!”

“Look at me!” says Tommy. “Is it funny that I can do this?”

Meg laughs. Tommy is being funny. “You are just so much fun, Tommy,” she says. “You make me laugh.”

“Come, children,” says Tommy’s sister. “It is time to read the Bible together. The Bible is the Word of God.”

“We can make a line,” says Meg. The children like to be with Tommy’s sister.

“Will we read out of the green book?” says Tommy.

“No, I want to read your blue book or the red book, please,” his little brother says.

“They are the books I like best.”

“Please help me!”
says Meg. “I am up here. Help me come down! My little toy dog was on top.
Help, please!”

The children want to help, but they are too little.

Then Tommy's daddy comes. He is big. He can help Meg come down.

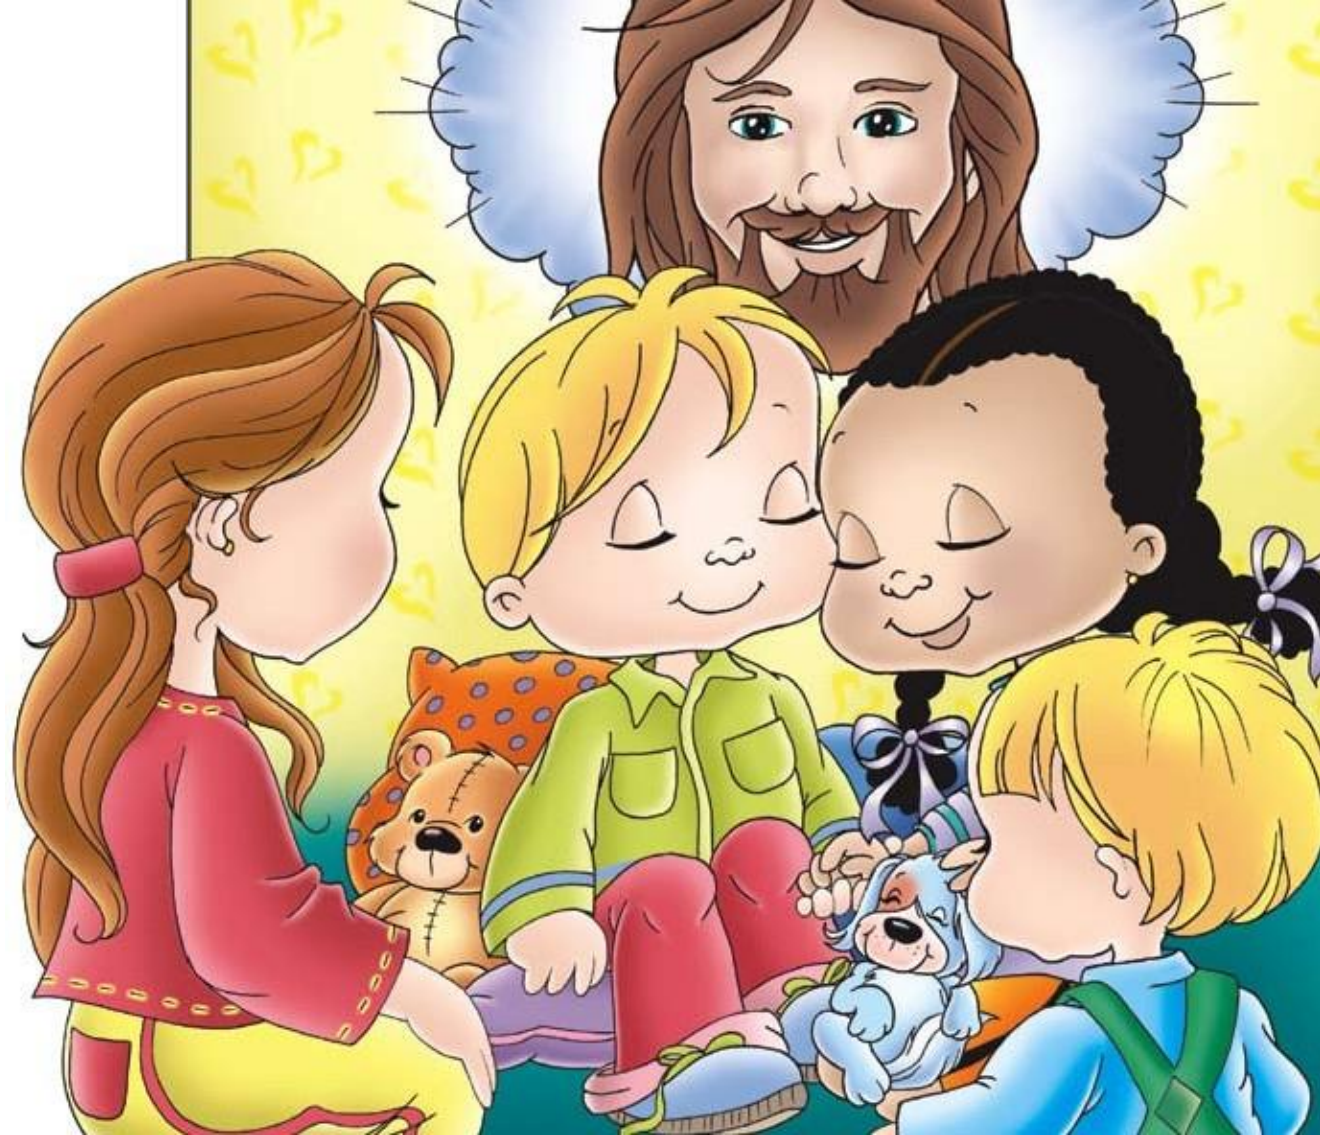

"Thank you so much," she says.

Tommy's sister says, "Let's all pray together, and then we will read God's Word, the Bible."

All the friends sit down together. They pray. Jesus is with them too.

Tommy's sister says, "It is good to pray and to read the Word of God. The Word of God helps us love our family."

“We like to read God’s Word,” the children say.

“Let’s see,” says Tommy’s sister. “Let’s read the Bible now. Then we will all go out to the park!”

“Good!” the children say. “We like that!”

Now all of Tommy's family is together. Meg's mommy sits down.

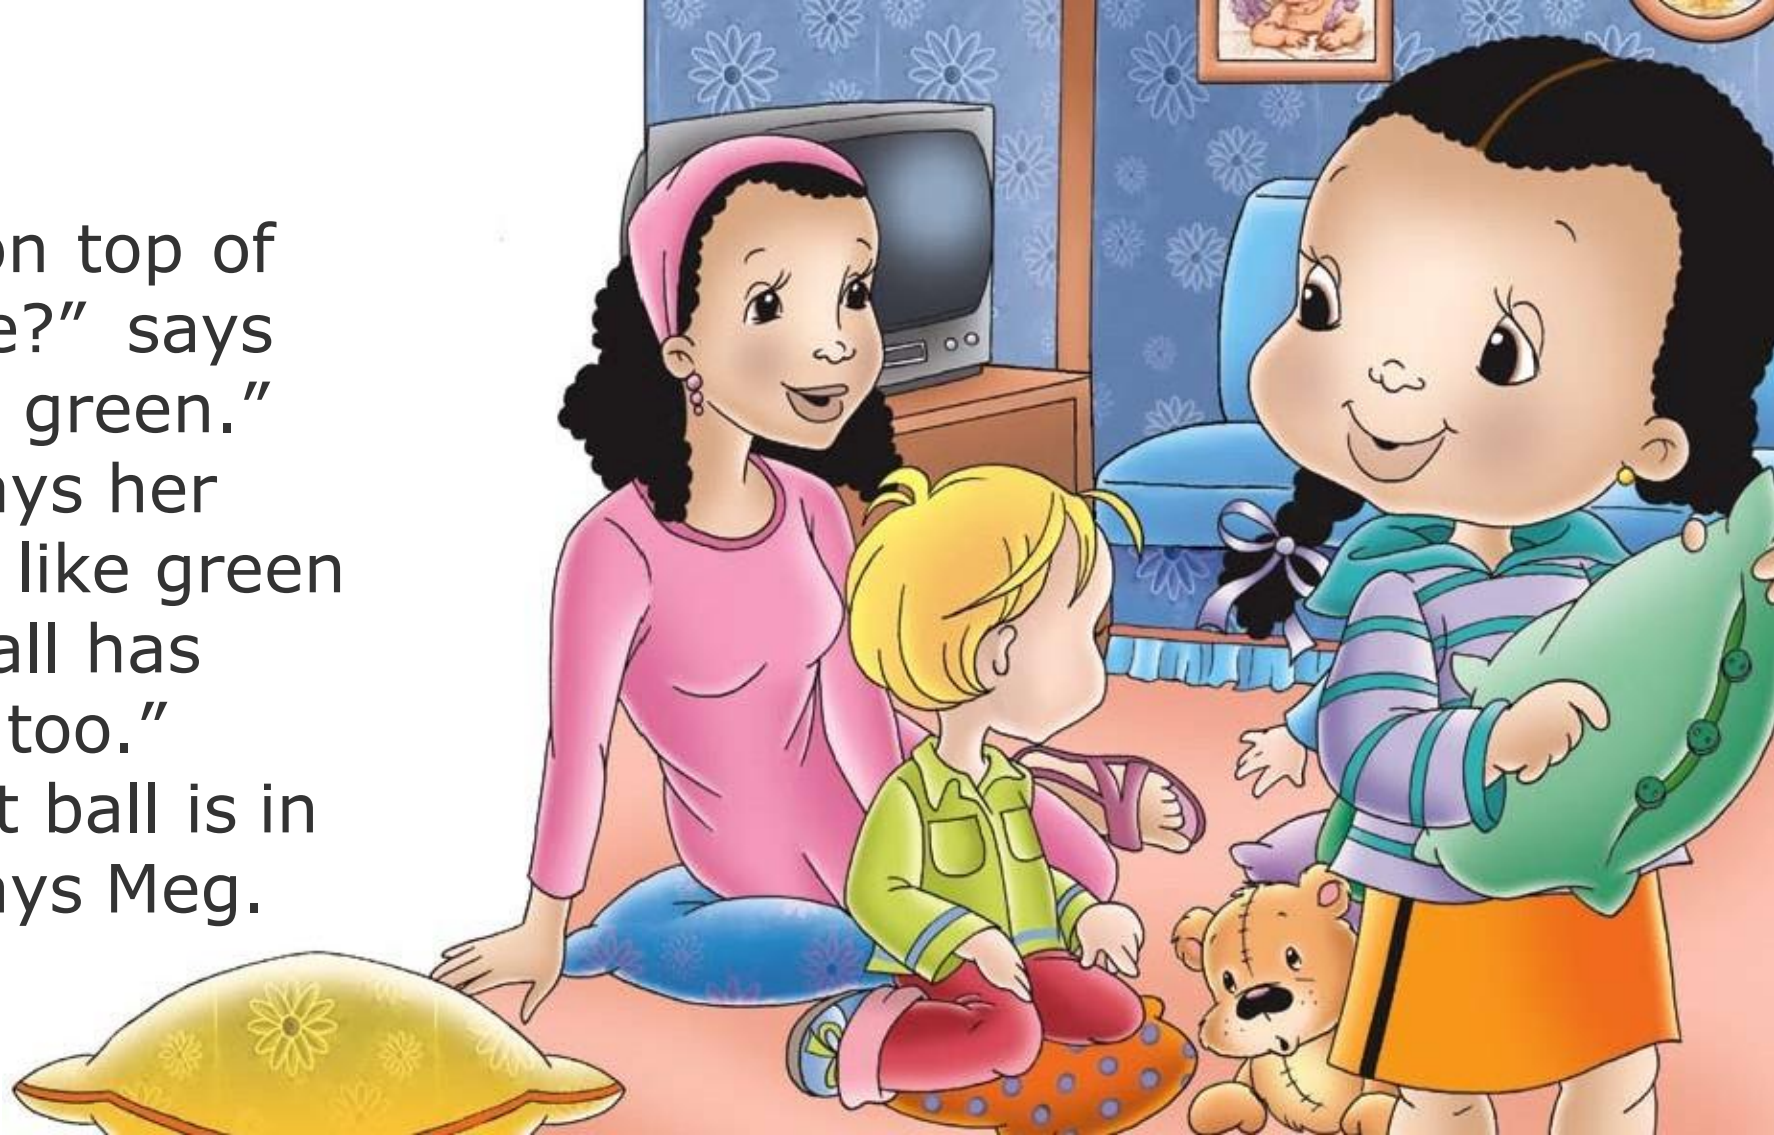

They play some songs. The children like to run about when the songs play. Then they sit down and laugh. It is fun!

“Can I sit on top of this, please?” says Meg. “I like green.”

“Yes,” says her mommy. “I like green too. Your ball has green on it too.”

“But that ball is in the car!” says Meg.

Now the friends are out with their car. They look up and down, in and out. They do not see the ball.

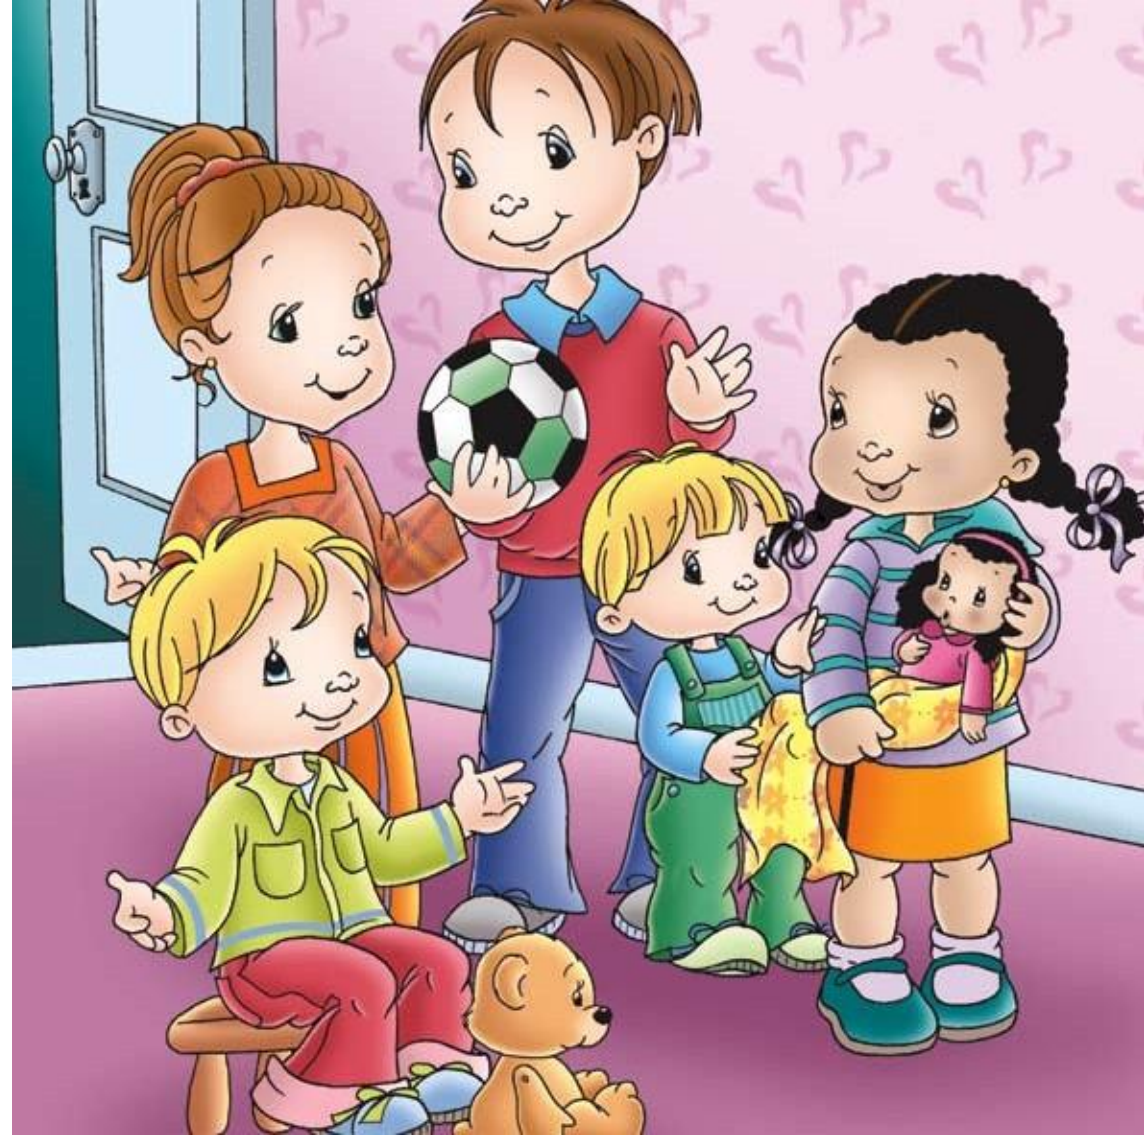

Tommy prays for God to help them. Then he says, "Let's see. Is the ball with Meg's doll?"

“Let’s go see!” says
Meg.

The friends run in.
They see Meg’s doll,
and the ball too!

“This was a happy,
happy day!” they say,
and laugh. “And Jesus is our best Friend!”
