

Grant me, O Lord...

Gewähre mir, Gott...

To know what is worth knowing,

*Zu wissen, was
wissenswert ist,*

To love what is worth loving,

*Zu lieben, was sich lohnt zu
lieben,*

To praise what delights you most,

*Zu loben, was Dich am meisten
begeistert,*

To value what is precious in your sight.

*zu würdigen, was kostbar
ist in Deinen Augen.*

Do not let me
judge by what I see,

*Nicht nach dem,
was ich sehe zu
urteilen,*

Nor pass sentence
according to what I hear,

*Auch nicht nach dem,
was ich höre,*

But to judge rightly between things that differ,

*Sondern recht zu
urteilen, wo Dinge
unterschiedlich sind,*

And above all to search out and do what pleases
you. Amen.

*Und vor allem,
herauszufinden,
was Dich erfreut.
Amen.*

Page 1 – Pressfoto via Freepik.com

Page 2 – pressfoto via Freepik.com

Page 3 – Nick See via Flickr

Page 4 – public domain

Page 5 – public domain

Page 6 – Norbert via Stockvault.net

Page 7 – pressfoto via Freepik.com

Page 8 – public domain

Page 9 – Microsoft Clipart

Text by Thomas à Kempis (1380–1471).

Translation by Activated! Magazine; used by permission.

www.freekidstories.org

