

John Sees Heaven

João vê o céu

John was the son of Zebedee, a fisherman on the lake of Galilee, and the brother of James, also an apostle.

João era filho de Zebedeu, um pescador no lago da Galiléia, e irmão de Tiago, também um apóstolo.

John was also a close friend of and worked with the apostle Peter.

João também era um amigo íntimo de Pedro e trabalhou com o apóstolo.

John wrote the book of Revelation and told us about heaven.

João escreveu o livro de Apocalipse e falou sobre o céu.

John said God's kingdom will be filled with love, beauty, peace, and joy. We will have bodies, much like we do now, but without sickness or pain. We'll be able to enjoy each other's company and live happily together forever.

João disse que o reino de Deus será repleto com amor, beleza, paz, e alegria. Teremos um corpo, muito parecido com o que temos agora, mas sem doenças ou a dor que sentimos em nosso corpo terreno. Seremos capazes de desfrutar a companhia uns dos outros e viveremos felizes para sempre.

Most of all, we will be enveloped in the love of the One who loves us more than anyone – God himself.

Acima de tudo, o reino de Deus será repleto do amor dAquele que nos ama mais do que qualquer um: Deus.
